GROUP

Helping you to remember

Westerleigh Group supports over 60,000 families each year in saying their final good-bye to their loved ones. We also assist families to find ways of remembering, celebrating and preserving their memories and we do this with exceptional care.

Our partnership with And Vinyly enables us to offer you the opportunity to create real vinyl records, each containing a small amount of the ashes. A unique bespoke memento, an And Vinyly record can not only be played but held and cherished for generations.

This brochure will enable you to discover more about And Vinyly. If you have any questions, our helpful colleagues will be able to assist you.

Westerleigh Group

And Vinyly...

And Vinyly have had the privilege of pressing ashes into vinyl since 2006.

Founder and long time vinyl music producer Jason Leach was intrigued by the fact that audio can be literally felt as it moves the air and fascinated by the ability of sound to transport a listener immediately back to a particular place and time.

After learning that Hunter S Thompson had his ashes set off in a firework and contemplating how he himself might be remembered by his music, Jason felt that being pressed into his own record containing a bespoke compilation of audio and imagery would be a fitting memorial - a true 'record' in every sense of the word.

He decided to make his idea a reality, And Vinyly was formed and today hundreds of And Vinyly records are treasured across the globe.

Bringing people together

An And Vinyly record is a tangible compilation of treasured memories that can be seen as well as heard. Jason and Harriette from And Vinyly (with decades of experience in sound production and graphic design respectively), alongside Westerleigh colleagues, will be on hand to guide you every step of the way throughout the process.

The first step is the collation of the content. This can be collaborative and is, we have learned, often a cathartic experience, with friends and family contributing photographs and words, voicemails, answerphone messages and recordings of special times.

As the difference in cost between producing one or multiple records is relatively small, everyone can have a perfect record of their loved one.

Creating the perfect record
